Discover the Trossachs

The Trossachs Trundler follows part of the Trossachs Trail route. Leave your car behind, sit back, enjoy the scenery and let us take the strain. Don't worry about missing the views, not spotting the wildlife, finding your way, car parking and all the associated hassle. Join us for an unforgettable day in the heart of the Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park.

Enjoy unlimited travel for one day on all Trossachs Trundler journeys around the Callander-Trossachs-Aberfoyle-Callander circle. It's fantastic value! You can buy your tickets on the Trossachs Trundler bus or at Stirling Bus Station.

A perfect day out in the heart of the National Park!

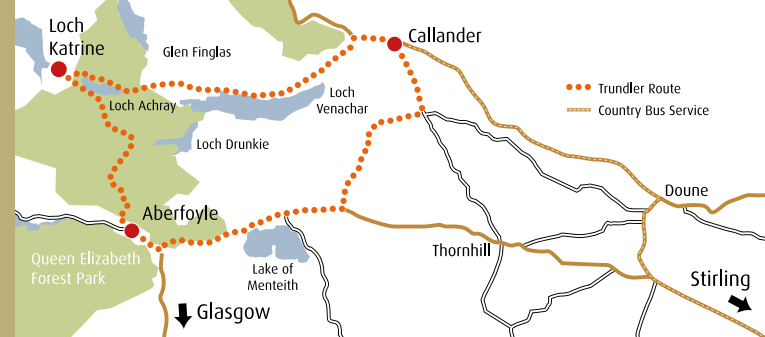

■ Ben A'an

The Trossachs Trundler summer bus service allows you to relax and explore the Trossachs without your car. It links the gateway resorts of Callander and Aberfoyle and takes in some breathtaking scenery and popular attractions in the stunning Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park.

The circular route with a flexible jump on jump off service gives access to a wide range of fantastic walks, bike trips and attractions. The Trundler stops on request, so you can get on or off at any point along the route. The bus is fully wheelchair accessible, can carry up to two bikes and has space for rucksacks.

Hotspots Include:

Callander

Why not explore the gateway to the Trossachs in the shadow of Ben Ledi? Take a walk by the river, go swimming, or try the indoor climbing wall at Maclaren Leisure Centre. Drop into the Trossachs Visitor Centre, play golf or explore the shops and sample some superb local food.

Loch Venachar

Hire a boat and go fishing or enjoy some locally produced refreshments at the stunning lochside Harbour Café.

Brig o'Turk

Explore beautiful Glen Finglas, where the kings of Scotland once hunted. This is one of the largest collections of ancient trees in Scotland, which inspired both John Ruskin and Sir Walter Scott.

Tigh Mor Trossachs

Overlooking Loch Achray, this is the starting point for Ben A'an (454m). Despite its modest height, this rugged hill offers a great walk, full of character and some of the best views in the southern Highlands.

Loch Katrine

The inspiration for Sir Walter Scott's Lady of the Lake and Rob Roy. Take a boat trip, hire a bike, go for a walk or just enjoy a picnic. There are frequent sailings of the famous 'Sir Walter Scott' steamer and 'Lady of the Lake', the perfect way to explore Loch Katrine and soak up the magnificent scenery.

Achray Hotel

The starting point for a superb day hillwalking on Ben Venue (729m), an enjoyable walk with stunning loch and mountain views from the top.

David Marshall Lodge

Visit Go Ape tree top adventure and try the longest zip slide in the UK. Take the Waterfall Trail or visit one of the wildlife hides. Inside the Lodge you can watch ospreys with live pictures beamed from the nest. Don't miss the coffee and cake at the popular Bluebell Café.

Aberfoyle

Explore this popular village, visit the Trossachs Discovery Centre or sample some local food and shopping.

Port of Menteith

Take the short boat trip across Scotland's only lake to the tranquil Inchmaholme Island and it's charming and historic Priory.

Trossachs Day Rover - fantastic value only for £5.10 adults and £2.10 for children. Family tickets £12.30 for 2 adults and up to 4 children.

Operates daily except Wednesdays

The Trossachs Trundler is operated by Harlequin Coaches Ltd (Tel: 07767 215 261) on behalf of Stirling Council. For information on other travel services call Traveline Scotland on 0871 200 22 33 or visit www.travelinescotland.com
